THE NEWBERRY LIBRARY

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES

OF

FOR THE YEAR 1909

CHICAGO
1910

REPORT OF THE PRESIDENT.

CHICAGO, January, 1, 1910.

To His Excellency Charles S. Deneen,
Governor of the State of Illinois,
Springfield, Illinois.

Sir: In accordance with the provisions of an Act entitled: "An Act to encourage and promote the establishment of free public libraries in cities, villages, and towns in this State" (Illinois), approved June 17, 1891, under which this corporation is organized, the Trustees of The Newberry Library submit their eighteenth annual report for the year 1909.

A change in the librarianship of the library occurred during the year, by the resignation of Mr. John Vance Cheney, and the election of Mr. W. N. C. Carlton, Librarian of Trinity College, Hartford, Connecticut, who brought to us a successful experience of seventeen years. Mr. Carlton assumed the duties of Librarian on July first.

With this exception there has been no change during the year in the officers of the Institution, and the Board of Trustees remains the same.

A list of the Trustees and Officers, with members of the standing committees, is given in Exhibit I.

Exhibit II presents a list of the Trustees from the organization of the Library in 1892 to the present time.

The Annual Report of the Librarian, appended hereto and marked Exhibit III, presents the general condition of the Library, and also the statistics, including the accessions during the year by purchase and gift, of books, pamphlets, maps, manuscripts, etc., of 13,200 pieces, making the aggregate of literary material for the entire Library, at this date, 259,342. Special attention is called to the presentation by the Librarian of the character of the accessions, and also to the number of current serials received, both by purchase and also by gift. Of this department of literature, numbering a total of 880 periodicals, 600 are in the English language, and 280 in languages other than English. An interesting table showing their distribution by subjects and language is appended to the Librarian's report.

Other points of interest presented by the Librarian, relating to the general administration of the Library, including the attendance and use of the Library; Inter-Library Loans; the work of classification and cataloguing; the Genealogical Index; and the Bindery, will indicate the work which is steadily going forward in this institution, through which the generous designs of its Founder are being realized, in the advancement of the intellectual and moral life of the city where his active life was spent.

The statement of "Inter-Library Loans," made during the past year, is of interest, as showing the care used in the administration of this wise provision for the extension of the influence of a "Reference Library," as also the appreciation of other Libraries and Societies of our collections.

Exhibit VII presents the location of the several Departments of the Library; and Exhibit VIII a list of the donors and their donations during the year.

In addition to the acknowledgments, which have been officially made to the several donors of documents to the Library, the Trustees would, in this public report, express their appreciation of the thoughtfulness that has made this institution the recipient of their gifts.

Exhibit IX presents a statement of the assets of The Newberry Library, on December 31, 1909, with the real estate; also the expenditures for books, pamphlets, maps, and fittings of the Library, from its foundation to date.

Respectfully submitted.

E. W. Blatchford,

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE LIBRARIAN.

To the Board of Trustees,
The Newberry Library.

Gentlemen: I have the honor to submit herewith the report of the Librarian for the year 1909. The statistics given are taken from the records currently kept in the Library.

INCREASE OF THE LIBRARY. The accessions by purchase numbered 7,172 volumes, 4,062 pamphlets, maps, and charts, a total of 11,234 pieces. There were received by gift 1,228 volumes, 738 pamphlets, manuscripts, etc., a total of 1,966 pieces. The whole number of items added during 1909 was 13,200, making a grand aggregate for the entire Library of 259,342 books, pamphlets, maps, manuscripts, and other pieces of literary material.

The most notable acquisition of the year was the collection of material gathered for us in China by Dr. Berthold Laufer. His own words best describe it: "The present collection comprises: (1) All Tibetan literature I was able to secure at Darjeeling and in Sitkim, i.e. Tibetan literature printed in Tibet; (2) all Tibetan and Mongol books which have ever been printed at Peking, as far as available at present; (3) a fine and complete copy of the Tibetan Kanjur, the famous collection of religious Buddhist books in Tibetan, in 102 folio volumes, brought from Lhasa to Peking by the Dalai Lama on his recent visit [there]; (4) a choice collection of Japanese illustrated books, of great value to students of Japanese art and culture....; (5) a splendid Chinese library, which is very strong in history, lexicography, philosophy, and encyclopædias, and abounds in magnificent old editions. There are no less than thirty-seven works coming down from the time of the Ming dynasty (1368-1648), the oldest being dated 1415. This material, properly arranged, would show the entire development of East Asiatic printing, book-making, and wood-engraving."

Every subject within the special scope of the Library has been represented in the purchases made of current and recent publications. Special additions, varying in extent from fifty to three hundred titles, have been made in the following subjects: English literature, Geography, Genealogy, French history, Spanish history, and the United States Civil War (regimental histories chiefly). Other purchases were: A complete set of the publications of the International Musikgesellschaft, and the collected works of the following musicians: Peter Cornelius, Christoph Gluck, Andrew Gretry, Joseph Lanner, Orlando Lassus, Johann C. Löwe, and Jan Sweelinck; the Japan Society's Proceedings and Transactions, Journal and Proceedings of the Society for Psychical Research (35 volumes), The Pandit, a Monthly Journal devoted to Sanskrit (39 volumes), Preussische Jahrbücher, 1858-1909 (135 volumes), Transactions and Proceedings of the Royal Irish Academy (59 volumes), Münchener Geographische Studien (22 volumes), Recueil des travaux relatifs à la Philologie Egyptienne (31 volumes), Studien zur englischen Philologie (31 volumes), Quarterly Series, edited by the Jesuit Fathers (101 volumes).

A complete list of those who have given books follows this report. It is proper, however, to make especial mention of the following donors and their gifts: Hon. G. E. Adams, Chicago, 21 volumes of miscellaneous works; 31 maps to accompany the Official Records of the Union and Confederate Armies; and 3 manuscripts; E. E. Ayer, Chicago, a manuscript, The Vesper Service of the Russian Church, also 2 volumes and 36 maps; Bibliotheca Nacional, Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, 25 volumes and 32 pamphlets of Brazilian State documents; W. R. Collins, Chicago, 47 volumes, covering various subjects; Indiana State Library, 30 volumes and 31 pamphlets of Indiana State documents; The John Crerar Library, Chicago, 23 volumes and 24 pamphlets of miscellaneous publications, also 34 maps; Michigan State Library, 23 volumes and 35 pamphlets of Michigan State publications; Board of City Record, New York City, 19 volumes of the City Record; Ohio State Library, 39 volumes and 16 pamphlets of Ohio State documents; Mrs. C. F. Parkes, Chicago, 90 volumes and 14 current numbers of magazines; Pennsylvania State Library, 46 volumes and 31 pamphlets of Pennsylvania State publications; Mrs. Theodore Thomas, Chicago, 185 volumes and 312 pamphlets, being a part of the musical library of the late Theodore Thomas; U. S. Geological Survey, 103 maps, 35 volumes, and 17 pamphlets of Geological publications. University of Chicago, 13 volumes and 25 pamphlets, mostly dissertations; G. P. Upton, Chicago, 279 volumes and 39 pamphlets on music; Imperial and State Governments of India, 159 volumes and 143 pamphlets of Government publications.

PERIODICALS. The total number of current serials received during the year was 880. Of these, 585 were purchased and 295 were presented; 600 were in the English language and 280 were in languages other than English. A table showing their distribution by subjects follows this report.

CATALOGUING, CLASSIFICATION, ETC. The Catalogue Department, under the immediate direction of the Assistant Librarian, reports 19,753 volumes and pamphlets as catalogued during the year. For this material 22,915 cards were prepared and filed in the Official Card Catalogue. The department also reports that a large amount of revision work was done on this catalogue.

The number of volumes and pamphlets classified was 9,669. Entries to the number of 20,000 were inserted in the shelf-lists, public and official.

To the Genealogical Index there were added 62,040 entry slips, and typewritten copy for 16,440 new entries was prepared.
